The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28. 1737.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland and France.

LETTERS of the 1st Instant, O. S. from Belgrade, advise that the Bashaw of Bosnia, who with about 60,000 Men hover'd several Days in the Neighbourhood of the Imperial Army, as if he intended to fall upon it, as it retir'd over the Save, is march'd off with his Troops, after having ravaged all the adjacent Country. The Skirmish near Krojova is confirmed, but the Loss of the Imperialists is now represented to be not so considerable, as was at first given out. The greater Notice is taken of the Bashaw of Bosnia's Retreat, because he made no considerable Motion, nor so much as attempted to retake Usitza, tho' his Army was 3 Times superior to the Imperialists: And several People guess, that when the Bashaw was preparing to act with most Vigour, he received Orders from the Grand Seignior, to go upon no fresh Enterprize, without acquainting him with it beforehand; nay, some People carry their Speculation farther, and imagine that this Behaviour betokens a speedy Suspension of Arms between the Emperor and the Porte. The Baron de Hagenbach, who is posted at Caraccal, on the Frontiers of Imperial Wallachia, has beat and put to Flight a Detachment of 15,000 Turks, that offer'd to dislodge him from that Post. The Council of War has sent Orders to arrest Colonel Salhausen, who, 'tis said, was the Cause of the Disaster which the Imperialists lately suffer'd at Krojova, by his rash Contempt of the Intelligence he receiv'd, that 4000 Turks were approaching; and by basely leaving 400 Men at that Post, to be put to the Sword, or taken Prisoners by the Turks.

The Imperial Court has order'd a Council of War to be held at Belgrade, to try Major General Doxat, who is said to be in Custody, for Surrendering Nissa, contrary to his Instructions, and to the Opinion of several Officers.

Mean time the Affairs of Count Seckendorff continue in much the same Situation as before; tho' his Enemies, who were most imbittered against him, seem to abate of their Fury. The Commissioners of Inquiry had a Conference at Court, on the 8th Instant, O. S. for 5 Hours, the Emperor present; at which they examined that General's Memorial, in Answer to the Articles of his Accusation. We are assured he therein declares,

'That after due Reflection upon his whole Conduct, since it has pleased his Imperial Majesty to honour him with the chief Command of his Army in Hungary, he cannot charge himself with any Failure of his Duty, or of having neglected one favourable Opportunity all the last Campaign. That as his Imperial Majesty approved of that Plan for the Operations, of which he had done himself the Honour to desire his Opinion, so he flatter'd himself that he had pursued that Plan with the utmost Exactness. That as he had made it his Rule neither to attempt nor execute any Thing, without his Imperial Majesty's particular Orders, he intreated him that he would be pleased to call to Mind, the various Occasions upon which he had Recourse to his Direction. That as fast as he had put the Plan of the Operations in Execution, he did not fail to inform the Court of every Motion that he made. That as to the Surmise of some People, that he precipitated the March of the Army, at the Time of the Taking of Nissa; and that he made an improper Division of the Troops; he thought it proper at that Juncture to march the Troops in such a Hurry, that they might be soon enough before the Place, to take it without laying Siege to it; and that Servia being encompass'd with Streights and narrow Passages, which there was a Necessity of securing, he judg'd that the dividing of the Forces into several Bodies was absolutely necessary, in Order to be Master of those Passes, and to be enabled to make Incursions into the Enemy's Territories. That as to the odious Reproach cast upon him, of having preferred his particular Interest to the Emperor's Honour, 'tis easy to clear up this Matter, by the Accompts of the Employment of the Sums sent to the Army; and that if the latter End of the Campaign was not so successful as the Beginning, the Fault ought not to be laid at his Door, but charg'd to the almost insurmountable Difficulties he met with in the Execution of his Orders, &c.

There's Advice from Lisbon, that an English Man of War, under the Command of the Lord Augustus Fitzroy, is arrived there in 17 Days from Newfoundland.

They write from Brussels, that the Prince and Princess of Orange, who for avoiding all Ceremony are there with the Title of Count and Countess of Buuren, dined the 14th O. S. with the Count d'Harrach; on the 15th with the Prince de la Tour and Taxis, where there was Musick during the Repast; and on the 16th with the Earl of Ailesbury. The same Evening their Highnesses went to see a Comedy, at which the Archduchess was present; and they afterwards supp'd with the Count d'Harrach, who gave them a most splendid Treat; during which there was a Concert of Musick performed by the most skilful Musicians of the City. On the 17th the Princess of Grimbergen entertained their Highnesses at Dinner, in her fine new House, where the principal Nobility of the City were present; and there was afterwards a numerous Assembly in the beautiful Salon of that Palace, which was nobly illuminated.

His Excellency Mr. Walpole set out the same Day from the Hague, by Order from his Britannick Majesty, to wait on the said Prince and Princess, to acquaint them of the dangerous Condition of the Queen.

Yesterday Se'nnight dy'd at Utrecht, aged 60, M. Daniel de Leeuw, Dean and Canon of the Chapter of St. Peter's Church in that City, &c. &c. A Gentleman of such excellent Qualities, that his Death is universally lamented by those who knew him.

The Paris Letter, dated on Wednesday last, says, that the Count de Tholouse died Yesterday Se'nnight, at Rambouillet, in the 60th Year of his Age: And that on the 8th Instant died, of a tedious Illness, at St. Germain en Laye, aged 56, my Lady Robertson, Wife of Sir James Forrester, a Scots Baronet, and Knight of the French Order of St. Lewis, who was one of King James the 2d's Followers in France.

HOME PORTS.

Birmingham, Nov. 21. On Saturday last Major Cook arrived here with several Officers of General Oglethorpe's Regiment. They began raising Men very successfully.—Some of their Officers are beating up in all the Towns, not only in this Neighbourhood, but as far as Manchester and Leicester; they give great Encouragement, and Men show a Willingness to list for Georgia.

EPIGRAM.

IN Fleetstreet we see, as we saunter along,
Two glittering Toy-shops that dazzle the Throng,
The Pinchbecks I mean, and sad is the Tale,
Tho' Brothers, unkind, at each other they rail,
One will not to t'other in any wise truckle,
Tho' Kit shews away with his new Mourning Buckle;
But who has the Secret, remains still a Doubt,
Yet w'ere sure 'tis not worth enquiring about:
Thus at present there is a pitiful Squabble,
Which Common Sense ought to be read by the Rabble,
And no one that thinks, but believes 'em both Lyars,
J— P— in the Close, and J— P— in the Fryars.

Advertisement concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholick Bookseller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he saw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more advisable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.

This Day is Published,

(Suited to bind up with RIDER's Almanack)

THE COURT KALENDAR for 1738. With a LIST of the Present Parliament, and a LIST of the Publick Offices and Officers.

To be had separately at 6 d. each, or Bound with Rider's Almanack, at 2 s. 6 d.

Printed and sold by J. WATSON in Wardrobe Court, Great Carter-Lane; R. BALDWIN, in St. Paul's Church-yard; and the Booksellers of London and Westminster.

Whereas a spurious and imperfect Edition of the COURT KALENDAR, List of Parliament, and List of Officers, was intended to be published this Day, to bind up with Rider's and other Almanacks, This is to give Notice, that the only genuine Edition, which was originally collected, translated, and has been for several Years printed by J. Watson, will be no longer sold by Francis Jefferies, near Stationers-Hall; but by the said J. Watson, Printer, in Wardrobe-Court, Great Carter-Lane; Mr. J. Hazard, near Stationers-Hall; and R. Baldwin, in St. Paul's Church-yard.

In Jefferies's Edition of the COURT KALENDAR, the Whole List of Cardinals, of the Knights of the Garter, Bath, and Thistle, with the Memorable Events since the Revolution, are entirely omitted.

A short and never-failing Cure for All Sorts of Coughs whatever, in Old or Young, whether Consumptive, Asthmatick, old Phthisicky Coughs, the Convulsive or Hooping Cough in Children or grown Persons, or Catarrhous Coughs, or those newly occasion'd by taking Cold.

By an Excellent ELECTUARY,

WHICH immediately and safely cures Coughs of every Kind to Admiration, be they ever so bad; takes away all Wheesing, Shortness of Breath, and Difficulty of Breathing, almost in an Instant, also Hoarseness, and all Soreness or Rawness of the Stomach, Throat and Wind-pipe; is Healing and Balsamick; causes gentle and easy Expectoration; frees the Breast from the great Load of Phlegm that so many Persons are fatigu'd with; rectifies all Manner of Disorders of the Lungs, preserving them entire, sound and good, certainly curing even Ulcers therein; effectually removes all old, short, wasting, and almost suffocating Coughs; cures the Phthisick and Asthma to a Miracle; as also Catarrhs and all Defluxions of Rheum.

Its noble Virtues are inexpressible; for it soon causes a long Breath and clear Voice; curing all sorts of Coughs, Colds and Disorders of the Breast and Lungs, in all sorts of Persons, and restoring and strengthening, where there is any Weakness or Decay to a Wonder. 'Tis not to be equalled.

Is to be had only at Jacob's Coffee-house, against the Angel and Crown Tavern in Broad-street, behind the Royal Exchange, at 2 s. 6 d. a Pot, with printed Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.
